

TOWN TALK! with Simon Ashberry

As well as continuing to support the first team as they enter the final phase of the season, I hope as many of you as possible will come along next week for the big derby clash at the DWB Stadium.

Boston Town Under 21s will be at home to Boston United Under 21s, kick off 7.45pm.

Here's the league table as it stands:

| POS | | P | W | D | L | F | A | GD | PTS |
|-----|-------------------------------|---|---|---|---|----|----|-----|-----|
| 1 | Spalding United Football Club | 8 | 6 | 2 | 0 | 42 | 11 | 31 | 20 |
| 2 | Boston Town Football Club | 6 | 4 | 1 | 1 | 20 | 14 | 6 | 13 |
| 3 | Boston United Football Club | 5 | 3 | 0 | 2 | 15 | 6 | 9 | 9 |
| 4 | Newark Town Football Club | 6 | 2 | 1 | 3 | 14 | 22 | -8 | 7 |
| 5 | Harrowby United Football Club | 6 | 2 | 0 | 4 | 6 | 20 | -14 | 6 |
| 6 | Grantham Town Football Club | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 14 | 10 | 4 | 5 |
| 7 | Sleaford Sports Football Club | 7 | 0 | 0 | 7 | 8 | 36 | -28 | 0 |

Our youngsters have had a great season so far and still have a chance of winning the Lincs Under 21 Development League South title - but they'll need leaders Spalding United to slip up somewhere along the line.

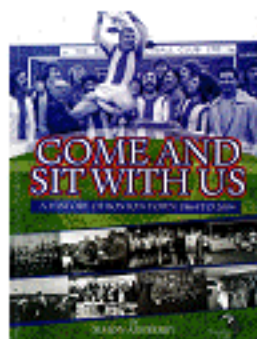

And before then they need a win against the Pilgrims to keep up the pressure on the Tulips.

Players such as Robert Raducan and Mido Turki will already be familiar to you after having broken through into the first team.

Bearing in mind the number of recent postponements, keep your eyes peeled on our website www.bostontownfc.co.uk and also our Twitter and Facebook pages in case of poor weather.
